

GW-ASIL Conference
“Intellectual Property Rights in India and China: Lessons and Challenges”
March 27, 2007

World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Legal Counsel Edward Kwaka presented the opening address which focused on applicable legal norms and recent developments in WIPO as to India and China.

Shamnad Basheer
Frank H. Marks Visiting
Associate Professor of Law and Administrative Fellow

Assistant General Counsel of the USTR
Probir Mehta (JD '02) discusses issues relating to US-India relations.

Elizabeth Chien-Hale
Director, Institute for Intellectual Property in Asia

Professor Joseph Straus of the Max Planck Institute for Intellectual Property, Competition and Tax Law and the GW Law Marshall Coyne Visiting Professor of International Law and Raj Davé (LLM '03).